Dear Mr. Caplan:

It was a pleasure speaking with you. The International Visitors Council of Los Angeles (IVCLA) is pleased that Envi Reusable Bags will be participating in our Annual Citizen Diplomacy Celebration. Our silent auction will be an important part of the event and we would look forward to featuring bags from Envi Reusable Bags.

IVCLA's Citizen Diplomacy Celebration will take place on September 27th at a beautiful private residence in Hancock Park with nearly 200 guests attending. By participating in our Silent Auction, Envi Reusable Bags will be prominently displayed to those attending who will include the Los Angeles Consular Corps, elected officials, our corporate sponsors, members and guests of IVCLA and our international visitors. You will also receive recognition with a link to Envi Reusable Bags on the IVCLA website and a special thank you in our IVCLA Newsletter that goes to over 1000 leading members of the Los Angeles community.

The afternoon festivities will include inaugurating new board members and celebrating citizen diplomacy. We will present Bob Bates, Artistic Director and Co-Founder of Inner-City Arts, with our Outstanding Resource Award and also present Ann Kerr, UCLA Fulbright Coordinator, with our Outstanding Citizen Diplomat Award. Your donation to our silent auction will help make our celebration a great success.

All proceeds benefit IVCLA, a non-profit, non-partisan organization whose mission is to create international understanding and cooperation between the Los Angeles region and the rest of the world. IVCLA's work is special and unique. Through our exchange programs with international emerging leaders, we have the opportunity to build relationships and play a role in how policy and opinion leaders from more than 100 different countries view us. The open exchange of ideas with businesses, organizations and individuals IVCLA arranges help our visitors see the true Los Angeles- the true United States - and form their own opinions of us. Opinions important to our security. Opinions they will share back home.

Please feel free to contact me with any questions at 213-388-1428 ext.26. Thank you very much for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Helen Paul
Director of Special Events
